

EMERGING TRENDS IN AUTOMOBILE

❖ About The Event: -

- Emerging trends in automobile was an event organized at Gujarat Medical Education And Research Society on 9,October,2016.
- The guest of honor was Mr. Dilip Chhabria who is an Indian car designer and the founder of DC Design. He designed and manufactured DC Avanti, considered India's first supercar .

❖ Executive Summary:-

- The event was started with an effective presentation by Mr Chhabria, he explained how being a commerce graduate he successfully accomplished his goals of being the best car designer in india.
- He motivated the students by sharing his thoughts on how to be successful and achieve your goals in life.
- He shared his experience of building the first Indian supercar DC Avanti which is a success worldwide.
- It was an effective talk by him on making career in the field of automobile industry and achieving great heights.

DC AVANTI

- Mr. Chhabria gave a brief about the working style of DC designs and also shared his experience of building this company from a scratch.

The second half of the seminar was the interaction session with Mr Chhabria. Young engineering students from various institute raised their doubts and questions about the automobile field. He solved their queries and motivated the students.

“The seminar was very effective and has left a positive impact on students.”

D E S I G N